

Dear Madam, Sir,

I am a French student at ESSEC Business School, in my first year of Bachelor's degree in "Business and Administration" in Singapore. In my search for an internship in marketing in Singapore, I came across your company Google with great interest. As I am aspiring to become a manager in marketing in Food and Beverage, this internship would be an opportunity to acquire an overview of this sector.

My first year is coming to an end and I have strengthened my communications skills and my attention to detail. Furthermore, as a part-time babysitter (over and above my academic work) I have proved able to adapt to different situations as well as to show autonomy when presented with new tasks or challenges. Moreover, being serious and calm, I am rigorous in my work and like to learn new things.

One of my strengths is my developed sense of organization. It could benefit you because it allows me to handle different tasks and conduct a project or a study without deadline issues or misunderstandings. My analytical mindset is also an asset, I can do intensive research on a topic to develop complex solutions and ideas. I am passionate, dynamic, and dedicated to my work.

I am dynamic, joyful, organized, and motivated to learn. It would be a privilege to have the opportunity to be an intern in your company. It would be fascinating to find out how it works. To that end, I would be very happy to contribute to the various tasks I might be given.

I sincerely hope that you might be interested in considering my application and am enclosing my resume. Please feel free to ask for any further information.

I look forward to hearing from you,

Sincerely,

Constance Debruyne
